The LVSA has a triple dues structure, to encourage membership in the National Rifle Association (NRA) and to encourage members to actively participate in club activities.

The annual dues period runs from September 1st to August 31st of the following year.

Family dues are $75.00 for all immediate family members living in the same household, with a $25.00 credit for belonging to the NRA and an additional $25.00 credit for helping at least two hours per year at a club activity. First time members and those living more than 35 miles from Lander are given the work credit automatically.

A $5.00 deposit for outdoor range key and $10.00 deposit for the indoor range keys is required. An orientation tour is also required for use of the indoor range. 80% of the key deposit will be returned if you turn in your key.

Dues will be prorated for new members joining anytime during the year on the following basis: September or October - $25.00, November - $20.00, December - $18.00, January - $16.00, February - $14.00, March - $12.00, April $10.00, May $8.00, June – August - $30.00 (pays till Sept 1 of the following year).
